OwlTing Joins Circle Payments Network, Expanding Stablecoin
Access to High-Growth Global Markets

OwlTing's CPN integration boosts speed, reduces costs for cross-border payments in $194 trillion market

Arlington, Virginia, United States, December 4, 2025 – OBOOK Holdings Inc. (NASDAQ: OWLS) (“OwlTing” or the “Company”), a blockchain technology company operating as the OwlTing Group, today announced the completion of its integration with Circle Payments Network (CPN), Circle’s global network that enables near-instant, compliant stablecoin transactions. As one of Asia’s financial institutions in CPN, OwlTing expands its payment infrastructure to deliver lower costs and broader access for cross-border payments into high-growth regions, including Latin America, Africa, and Europe.

This collaboration strengthens OwlTing’s position in stablecoin infrastructure, allowing users to send regulated<sup>1</sup> stablecoins like USDC for near-instant settlements in the $194 trillion cross-border payments market<sup>2</sup>. By addressing traditional challenges like high fees and delays, CPN provides a new alternative for efficient global money movement.

“Joining Circle Payments Network advances our mission to build trusted infrastructure for global finance,” said Darren Wang, Founder and CEO at OwlTing Group. “As CPN grows, participants like OwlTing will benefit from its expanding corridors and institutional reach, supporting our long-term strategy to capture the growing stablecoin economy.”

<sup>2</sup> According to FXC Intelligence, the cross-border payments market is worth over $194tn and is forecast to reach $320tn by 2032. “We’re excited to welcome OwlTing to Circle Payments Network to deliver payments to high-growth markets,” said Irfan Ganchi, SVP, Product Management, Payments at Circle. “This integration furthers our goal of connecting financial institutions through a unified, open protocol that redefines how money moves globally.”

As an Originating Financial Institution (OFI) in CPN, OwlTing enables its digital wallet, OwlPay Wallet Pro, users to initiate stablecoin payments with intelligent routing based on the best rates, fees, and providers.

The initial rollout of the service focuses on regions with high cross-border payment needs, such as Brazil, Nigeria, and the European Union (EU). These markets highlight massive opportunities, such as the EU’s projected $213 billion in annual remittance inflows<sup>3</sup> supporting trade, migration, and investments, and Nigeria’s anticipated remittance inflows of $26 billion<sup>4</sup> amid Africa’s growing market share and economic demands. This underscores the demand for faster, affordable solutions in remittances, payroll, and trade finance serving billions of people worldwide.

OwlTing stands out with its extensive global regulatory footprint, ensuring secure and trusted stablecoin payments. The Company holds Money Transmitter Licenses in 39 U.S. states<sup>5</sup>, a Virtual Assets Service Provider (VASP) license in Europe, and an Electronic Payment Intermediary Service Provider (Bank API license) in Japan, while pursuing additional licensing opportunities in Hong Kong, Singapore, and Latin America. This commitment, following OwlTing’s successful Nasdaq direct listing, reinforces its leadership in building a regulated stablecoin infrastructure for businesses worldwide.
